GREATEST TIMBER
SALE IN HISTORY120 MILLION FEET OF TIMBER ON SITE
Sawyers Forest Advertised for Sale and Bids Are Already Coming in.

The greatest timber sale which has ever been made by the forest service is now being advertised and the sale will be completed early in January, when the 120 days of advertising period are up.

Associate Forester T. S. Womsey, Jr., who has just returned from the sawyers forest stated this morning that interest in the sale had reached a very high pitch throughout the section, and that when completed it would undoubtedly add a great deal to the general prosperity of that country lying between Holbrook, Ariz., and Pinetop, Ariz.

Don't forget the dance tomorrow night at Odd Fellows' hall.

The movements of this store will bear watching closely this season.

From time to time, we are going to spring some pleasant surprises in the way of extraordinarily big values that will mean a good saving to economical buyers.

Right in the beginning of the Winter Season, we have a few lines of fine suits specially priced at $20.00, $25.00, $30.00 and every suit positively an exceptional value at the price. They're worth more money.

We bought a few too many of suits. We have a special $15.00 line.

With the interest of our customers at heart we prefer to give them the benefit of getting something really good in their Fall suits now--than much later in the season.

No doubt they won't last long.

M. MANDELL
WASHINGTON CLOTHINGSECRET OF CENTURY IS REVEALED

Grandson of Napoleon Reveals Identity When Found at Death's Door in Miserable Poverty.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—Lying at death's door without money and without relatives able to care for him, his mind clear, although his body is worn and weak from the ravages of tuberculosis, Andrew Johnson Leith, 29, broke the secret of a century today when he revealed the fact that he is a grandson of Napoleon Bonaparte II, emperor of France.

It was the last thread. He knew that his adopted grandparents, who took his father in charge when but a babe, had entered over never to reveal the identity of his real father, and through a century no one has known that by Maria Louise of Austria, Napoleon had a son at the opening of the nineteenth century whose name was Jean Daniel Bonaparte.

Only his desperate condition drove the man to make the statement, and as a result of it he is now being given treatment at the Philadelphia hospital, which treatment he could not afford in his poverty-stricken condition.

He had been living alone in a dingy front room on the third floor of a rickety dwelling at 718 North Fourth street. He says:

"I was born in Worthem, on the Maine river, September 26, 1882. I do not remember very much about my early life, but I know that I came to America in 1889. I enlisted in the Union ranks in the Civil War in New York city, and served for four years.

"I know that my grand father was Napoleon I of France.

"I believe that my grandmother's name was Maria Louise and I know that she came from Austria.

"But when my father was born, in 1799 or 1800, he was hidden away and finally adopted by a family named Leib in Germany."

Relief comes quickly—comes to stay.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney disease.

Prove it by your neighbor's case. Here's Albuquerque testimony.

The story of a permanent cure.

Mrs. Frank J. Smith, 1521 S. Arno street, Albuquerque, N. M., says: "I derived great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills and this has led me to recommend them to more than one of my friends. For five years I was troubled by a dull pain in the small of my back, always more severe if I stood for awhile. I always felt tired and I was unable to get relief. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, and upon taking them, I was helped. I have unlimited confidence in this remedy and shall always have a good word for it."

Afterwards I submitted my statement and report to the court at a regular session of said court at Silver City and after spending several hours on the stand, explaining in detail any and all parts of my report on which information was desired, in response to questions by Mr. Holcomb, representing the department of the interior, Judge Fall, who appeared for the territory and Mr. Neil B. Field, who appeared for the Title Guaranty Co.

C. V. SAFFORD GIVES LIE TO CHARGE OF WHITEWASH

of times that "New Mexico is not large enough to hold both me and Mr. Bursum," and also referred to other prominent Republicans whom he said he would have to "eliminate."

At the solicitation of Hagerman on Oct. 1 Holcomb was sent here by the department of the interior. That party made an examination of the record at the penitentiary covering one day. Holcomb's statements and those of the warden concluded that the proper course for him was to bring charges against Mr. Bursum which would give him ground for dismissing him from office, or seeking to publicly disgrace him and for attempting to kill Mr. Bursum's political influence.

Hagerman consulted me about the matter. He told me the kind of a report he wanted, and stated the showing made by Mr. Holcomb. I was thoroughly familiar with territorial financing affairs and I told Hagerman that he could not make such a report if he was an honest man and that I would not make it. I told him that Bursum was not a "thief" and I warned him that to attempt the procedure he had in mind would react upon him. At the conclusion of this interview Hagerman dismissed me from his office with these words: "Say GOD I CAN'T MAKE YOU BELIEVE ME IS A THIEF. YOU NEED NOT MAKE THE REPORT BUT I WILL GET SOMEONE THAT WILL MAKE IT."

Immediately thereafter Hagerman brought to New Mexico the so-called "Colorado expert." This man did several weeks of mysterious work in the offices of the territorial governor and the attorney general, and upon this examination formulated a report which was spread broadcast throughout New Mexico by Hagerman and the Journal. The great "expose" was shown to me after its completion by Hagerman who asked me what I thought of it. I told him I wanted time to go into it and give a thorough examination, told him that as it stood it was probably false. I told him that it was indefinite and that I knew it to be incorrect. I advised him not to make it public until Mr. Bursum had had an opportunity to answer the charges contained therein, which opportunity had been denied him throughout the examination.

The sensational manner in which Hagerman caused this report to be put before the public is well known. It was the most unfair attempt ever made in New Mexico to ruin the character of a public man. Hagerman deliberately made use of his official position in an effort to ruin a man he considered his personal enemy.

Hagerman brought E. P. Holcomb from New Mexico with the deliberate intention of ruining Mr. Bursum's character. Hagerman was dismissed from the office in disgrace by the president of the United States upon a report made by this same Holcomb, but he was not dismissed until he had forced his attorney general to make a demand on Mr. Bursum for the amount alleged to be due by the "fake" report of the "Colorado expert." The demand was made with the confident expectation that Mr. Bursum would refuse it and that he could be then arrested for embezzlement upon an information to be filed by the then assistant attorney general and district attorney who was an apostate of Mr. Hagerman. The demand of Mr. Bursum was made and he promptly made the payment for the falsely alleged shortage under protest. Mr. Bursum requested his attorney that he be allowed the matter in the courts as he did not owe the money or any part of it.

This request for a fair hearing was refused by Hagerman's explicit direction. As is well known Bursum could file no suit against the territory without the consent of its attorney general, that being the law. He was forced therefore by Hagerman's orders refusing him recourse to the law, to stand for a time before the public in the position of having to repay money which it was claimed he had received and had not accounted for. It was necessary for him in order to get into court and to have any kind of a hearing at all to appeal to the legislature.

When that body convened Mr. Bursum placed his case before it. Every conceivable effort was made by Hagerman to prevent the passage of an act allowing Bursum a hearing before the court. The legislature, however, passed such an act and placed it before Hagerman and he did not dare refuse his approval of it.

Upon the passage of this act admitting him to a hearing in open court Mr. Bursum immediately filed suit for an accounting. The application for the appointment of a referee came up in open court for a hearing and I was named by the court as such referee. I secured a leave of absence from the then acting-governor, the late J. W. Raynor, accepted the appointment, qualified as required by law and made a thorough examination of the papers and report on which information was desired, reducing the same to a statement and report. Before going into court with this statement and report I submitted the same to Mr. R. G. Gorimer, the same district attorney who under Hagerman, was to have taken all information and secured the arrest of Mr. Bursum for embezzlement. My statement and report were at the same time submitted to Mr. E. P. Holcomb, and after going over the entire matter with them in detail both Mr. Holcomb and Mr. Gorimer expressed themselves as satisfied as to the correctness of my work.

Afterwards I submitted my statement and report to the court at a regular session of said court at Silver City and after spending several hours on the stand, explaining in detail any and all parts of my report on which information was desired, in response to questions by Mr. Holcomb, representing the department of the interior, Judge Fall, who appeared for the territory and Mr. Neil B. E. Trust Co., of Colorado Springs, whose representative Hagerman employed to make his original report, his report and statement were approved by the court without objection from either Mr. Hagerman, Judge Fall or Mr. Field.

This report of mine and my statement with the exhibits and testimony are now matters of public record in the office of the district court clerk at Silver City. They are open to every man who cares to see them. The facts are as stated.

It is true that for making this report I received the sum of $1200, paid to me upon the order of the court. Out of this amount I paid my assistants sheriff's fees for serving subpoenas and the stenographers who took testimony and all costs of the examination conducted by me.

Among the witnesses before me was the Colorado "expert." This man refused to defend his work as will be seen by his sworn statement which is a matter of public record. I held this man for more than two days trying to have him testify. The Albuquerque Journal calls special attention to the fact that I was paid $1200 by the court for doing legitimate work in the public service. The Albuquerque Journal deliberates neglects to state that this Colorado "expert" was paid $1200 from territorial funds under the order of H. J. Hagerman without any order of court and without any authority of any statute of which we know.

In closing this statement I want to say that there was no attempt on my part to be harsh or to discredit the report of this Colorado "expert." His report was discredited on its face. At the time I made my examination I did not have this report. This report together with all the papers correspondence etc. concerning the effort to ruin Mr. Bursum left the office of the governor presumably at the time Mr. Hagerman left it as no vestige of them could be found in the files of the office.

The Albuquerque Morning Journal quotes Neil B. Field to the effect that had it not been for the stipulations between attorneys, he would have proven the report of the man from Colorado to be correct. Mr. Neil B. Field appeared in the case representing his client, the Colorado Title & Trust Co. This company expected that a large damage suit would be brought against them by the result of the report made by their expert.

It was at the request of Mr. Neil B. Field that the report of the Colorado man be not taken up for consideration and that the only question to be determined by the court was as to the correctness of the report which I made as referee.

Very respectfully,
CHARLES V. SAFFORD.

"YOUNG TURK" GIRLS WEAR NO VEILS

Modern Method of Courtship Now in Vogue in Land of Harem: Goo-Goo Eyes Already Mastered.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 30.—The methods of Turkey have learned to make American goo-goo eyes—they have learned to flirt like an American or Paris girl.

So said Slidley Bey, discussing the new regime in Turkey. He formerly was second secretary to the Turkish embassy in Washington, afterward serving consul-general in New York. Slidley Bey is here with his wife, handsome and talented, who had the distinction of being the only woman dwelling in the Turkish embassy. He went on:

"In the old days a woman in Turkey couldn't flirt because her glances were wasted on the wrong side of her head. Now she can use her eyes to advantage, and she knows it. The Turk knows it, too, and is glad she does not wear the veil.

"Under the old regime a lover never saw his bride until after the ceremony was over. Then he lifted her veil with some misgivings of his heart, for he had married the woman of his mother's judgment.

"In these days the American courtship is carried on in Turkey. The young man calls at the girl's house and even goes as far as to take her out for a walk just like the American or Englishman. Then he poses the question, and if she accepts they are eventually married."

When that body convened Mr. Bursum placed his case before it. Every conceivable effort was made by Hagerman to prevent the passage of an act allowing Bursum a hearing before the court. The legislature, however, passed such an act and placed it before Hagerman and he did not dare refuse his approval of it.

Upon the passage of this act admitting him to a hearing in open court Mr. Bursum immediately filed suit for an accounting. SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color--Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great-grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair, with wonderful beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome methods of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to eat for the ready-made product. Wyeth's Sage and Safflower Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of safflower, another old-time scalp remedy.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Safflower today and notice the difference after a few days' use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

What is it the Democratic bosses see in the constitution of New Mexico that they want amended?

So far as the Herald has been able to learn from their speeches, from their platform, from their official organ, the Journal Democrat, they have made a lot of vague statements, but they have never been specific.

Is it the clause that provides that all men, under this constitution, shall be equal and shall have equal rights of suffrage for all times?

Is it because this constitution puts restraint upon corporate greed yet protects honest capital and honest investments?

Is it because it provides that all public funds shall be deposited at interest and the interest accrue to the benefit of all the people?

Is it because public officials and members of the legislature are prohibited from accepting railroad passes and because it provides for reasonable salaries and limits indebtedness and taxation and expenditures?

Is it because it does away forever with the old-time fellow-servant rule whereby railroads avoided paying damages to employees and pleaded negligence on the part of co-employees?

Is it because it provides for a uniform public school system, text books that can not be changed in six years, and the prevention of book trust graft?

Is it because it embodies the best progressive idea in the nation and does not incorporate those radical measures that have been rejected by the best students of history in the state and nation?

Is it because Jones, Martinez, Ferguson, McMillin and that element fear that if an amendment were just and necessary, a majority of the people in New Mexico could not be trusted to put it into the constitution, which they could do under the present amendment provision?

Is it because capital and labor, industry and enterprise, are protected alike and stable government in the new state insured?

What is it that these men want that they still oppose the constitution of New Mexico?

The electorate of New Mexico would like to know what it is that the constitution has with in any of its provisions that is so identical to the future of the new state and of the people?

Will these gentlemen who have invoked the plea of self-righteousness, stand out in the open and tell the people what is wrong with the constitution of New Mexico?
